

Who/What is SITCA?

SITCA, Systems Information Technology Caribbean, is an Information Technology Solutions Provider based in Antigua, in the Caribbean.

What do we do?

Our main focus is bulk text-messaging, automated interactive surveys, and application development. Our personalised services catered to your needs will assist you in being more efficient.

What are we selling?

Opportunity, Time Savings, and Reduced Costs

How?

With approximately twenty years of experience in a multiplicity of disciplines in the Information Technology field, we have been providing cost-effective, scalable, timely, and robust services and solutions to our clients. Some of these solutions and services include Bulk SMS Messaging Services, Automated Voice Broadcasting Services, Interactive Polling Services, Web Application Development, Web Site Development, Database Management, Software Engineering, and Information Technology Support.

Our team of skilled professionals has the technical tools you need to succeed. By collaborating with industry certified professionals, you will be assured to know SITCA is the most applicable option when looking for IT solutions.